SCHOOL FUND IS DUE BIG AMOUNT

Sum of $2,500 is Owing From Henrico County Treasury.

Term May Be Lengthened

Citizens of Henrico Are Anxious to Have School Term Nine Months.

The school session for the various districts of Henrico county is rapidly drawing near, and the question uppermost in the minds of the citizens of the county is whether they shall have eight or nine months for the coming session. It is well known that Superintendent Jackson Davis, of Henrico county, is very anxious to see the nine months session, and he is exerting all efforts to this end. The good people of Henrico county are also exceedingly anxious to see the term lengthened, and they and the district boards have signified their willingness to be assisted in this effort. It is understood, however, that the county board of supervisors is opposed to the nine months session, and it is not known whether the citizens will be able to secure a lengthened term. The school term is now eight months, and it is believed that the citizens will be able to secure a lengthened term.

Round Sum Still Due.

Henrico county is in a financial straits, and it is believed that the county board of supervisors is opposed to the nine months session, and it is not known whether the citizens will be able to secure a lengthened term. The school term is now eight months, and it is believed that the citizens will be able to secure a lengthened term.

NEWS GATHERED FROM SOUTHSIDE

German Consul Victor Purchases More Than Four Acres of Property in City.

WILL ERECT BIG WAREHOUSE

'Squire Jordan Has His Troubles in the Police Court—Personals and Briefs.

Manchester Bureau, Times-Dispatch, No. 112 Hull Street.

Mr. E. K. Victor, consul for Germany, yesterday purchased the four and one-half acres of land in the rear of the Passenger and Power Company barn, on Semmes Avenue, for $4,000. Mr. Victor proposes to erect a $25,000 building on the ground and to conduct a tobacco factory.

The purchase of the property was made through the real estate firm of R. F. Hamilton and Company. The property purchased belonged to Mr. Eugene O'Connor.

With the Police.

'Squire Jordan had a good big docket before him yesterday, and he was trying all through the one hour that Mayor Maurice would hurry back to the city. The 'Squire is getting mighty tired of being in the Police Court. He is worried too much.

Even Ivan and John Lindsay, the latter a negro, were charged with being disorderly. Ivan admitted that he had taken "one too many" and readily paid the fine of $2.50. Lindsay was dismissed.

Harvey Clark and Emmett Sheffield, white men, fought out their difference, and each paid $2.50 for the fine.

Alexander White, a negro, was charged by his wife with non-support. She claimed that he was not paying her for the support of the family. The court ordered him to pay her $10 per month.

Mr. J. H. Harris, of 10 West Seventh Street, who has been running from his home for several weeks, returned yesterday, and has gone to work. He gave an explanation of his absence. He had been away on business. Mrs. Harris had been much worried for some time and believed that her husband had committed suicide.

few days ago in The Times-Dispatch that the diver and hero of James River was rapidly dying of starvation and possibly consumption.

Many have wanted to help him, and now Mr. Fred C. Kellam, of the Kellam Hospital, comes forward with a definite plan for helping Edward. Mr. Kellam offers to treat the ill man free of all charge, furnishing medicines and everything else necessary, and that the outfit be in a comfortable home, preferably in reasonable distance of the Kellam Hospital.
